DAVIS THEATRE TODAY.

Four Shows Today-Big Keith Vaudeville Show-Charlie Chaplin in His Latest Comedy-Triangle Photoplays and Chester Conklin in a Keystone.

What is the premier show of the What is the premier show of the season will be seen at the Davis today and if you haven't seen it, he sure and not miss this last opportunity. The big attraction is the inimitable Charille Chaplin in his intest counsdy. The Vagabond. This is a two rector and the furniest picture he has ever appeared it. The Triangle feature is called An Innocent Magdalen and beautiful Lillian Gish is the star. This is a five part Griffith production and la full of human interest. Then there is a two reel Keystone comedy with a two reel Keystone comedy with Chester Conklin called His First False Step, and it is a scream from start to finish. In the vandeville there are two clever impersonation of Charlie clever impersonation of Charlis Char lin just as he is seen in the pictur. Belle Davis is the other net, and so is considered the best single ever see in this city. She gives imitations of famous stars and her work is finished and has been a highlit with the pa-trons of this theatre. There is all the usual high class programme of in cidental music by the Davis conces-orchestra. To accommodate the crowds who will want to see this sho-there will be four performances today there will be four performances toda, at 1.30, 3.15, 6.45 and 8.45.

DAVIS THEATRE NEXT WEEK.

Wyate's Scotch Lads and Lassies-William S. Hart in a New Triangle Feature, and Fatty Arbuckle in His Latest Two Reel Keystone Comedy

For the first built of next week the management of this theolies antonness an all star bill as the utraction. The big feature is Jack Wyatt's Scale Lads and Lassies, ten in number, who present a real Scotch Rovue. Clad in kilts and tarties, they play the pires, tap the drums, sing and dance as 'tisdome in Bonny Dandee. This is a real novelty and a big headline attraction that is nowlingly the bighest salaried. revue that has ever appeared at the theatre. They carry a full set of scenery showing the hills and glens of Scotland.

The Triangle feature picture is Wil-

Ham S. Hart, one of the most popul players on the servers in The Apos players on the screen in The Acostlo of Vengeunce, a five pair tree production. This is a story hid in the atmosphere of the Cumberland mountains of Kentucky. William S. Hart, who interprets the character of a Kentuckian brought up in New England, has no patients with the fend ideas of his fainty. When called burst from New England to take the place at the head of his house after the murder of his father, he true to preach the gospel of the brotherhood of man, pears on earth and good will to all warring meanshiners. He soon after temporarily suffers a reversion of sentiment when his sister is wronged by one of the mountaineers. He then takes issue with the Lord and becomes an Apostle of Vengeunce, but God soon shows him that vengeance is this.

The Keystone comedy to complete the show is called The Waiters' Estimal Fatty Arbuckle, the bag jovial the show is called The Walters Ball and Fatry Arthuckle, the big favia comedian, is the star. Patry is one of the most popular Keyntone comedians now appearing on the acreen and if you want to endoy a good laugh don't fall to see this picture.

AT THE AUDITORIUM,

John Barrymore in The Lost Bridegroom Coming Monday and Tues-

Today the feature of the Auditorium programme will be Constance Collier in The Code of Marcia Griff, an exceptionally entertaining live real Paramount feature which is causing a lof of favorable comment wherever it is shown. Other pictures on today's bill will be the eighth episode of The Mysteries of Myra and a Napolian and Sally animal comedy picture.

For next Monday a very attractive programme has been arranged for and it will be headed by the cenderated John Barrymore in a stirring humorous photoplay entitled The Lost Bridephotoplay entitled The Lost Bride-groom and written especially for Mr Barrymore by Williard Mack, author of Kick In. Mr. Barrymore plays the role of a crock in The Lost Bride-stroom, making his debut in this char-acter, which would seem a little un-usual, as it is so widely different from any character he has attempted before Bosides this excellent flux resder, or Manday and Tuesday will be shown Monany and the rect feature entitled His Computered Self, a weaterfully gotton up dramatic subject, and a single res comedy, Reckless Wrestlers.

BREED THEATRE.

The feature ecreen production at the Breed today is Thou Shahi Not Cover, with Tyrone Power and Kathlyn Williams, supported by an exceptional company of Selig players, including City Officer and Eugenia Besser. This picture is in five sensational recks, which include the blowing up of an ocean liner in mid-ocean and thousands of men, women and children are seen struggling for their lives.

The Wonderful Wager, a three red comedy featuring Raymond Hitchcock, completes the bill. The Wonderful Wager is a comedy writen by George V. Hobart. It is based upon the famous Ford filver automidie jokes and abounds with side-spiliting situations.

and abounds with side-splitting sitesa-tions. An entire circus and the burn-ing of two entire village strests are butpart of the thrillers of the picture.
